

The MMS Code of Conduct and Business Ethics is a general reference for use in all the countries in which MMS group of companies conduct operations. It does not describe all applicable laws or MMS policies, or give full details on any particular law or policy. It does not constitute legal advice. It does not constitute or create a contract of employment. MMS reserves the right to modify, revise, cancel or waive any policy, procedure or condition without notice and without revision of the Code. Moreover, the provisions of the Code may be modified by MMS to adapt them to local laws and conditions.

By resolution dated 2 May 2012, the Board of Directors of PETRONAS Maritime Services Sdn. Bhd. officially adopted the PETRONAS Code of Conduct and Business Ethics as PETRONAS Maritime Services Sdn. Bhd.'s Code of Conduct and Business Ethics.

By resolutions dated 17th August 2017 and 9th November 2017, the Board of Directors of MISC Maritime Services Sdn. Bhd. (formerly PETRONAS Maritime Services Sdn. Bhd.) and its subsidiary, Sungai Udang Port Sdn. Bhd. ("SUPSB"), officially adopted the MISC Code of Conduct and Business Ethics ('the CoBE') as the Company's and SUPSB's own.

The CoBE which is being implemented to the PETRONAS Group Worldwide, is an effort by PETRONAS to revise and combine its employees' Code of Conduct and Discipline and the PETRONAS Guidelines for Business Conduct for it to be in tandem with the advent of local and international legislation coupled with a higher international transparency standards. The CoBE further inculcates the observation of PETRONAS' Shared Values i.e. Loyalty, Professionalism, Integrity and Cohesiveness, amongst its employees.

For the purpose of its implementation in MMS the CoBE will herein be referred to as the MMS Code of Conduct and Business Ethics.

FOREWORD BY MD/CEO

Dear Colleagues,

In our journey towards making MMS as the centre for maritime services for the provision of marine assurance and compliance, port & terminal operations and management, consultancy and services, it is paramount that our organization is driven by high performing employees who display the highest degree of professionalism, work ethics and integrity.

In this respect, our shared values on loyalty, integrity, professionalism and cohesiveness has served as an important guiding principle on how we carry and conduct ourselves, as both an employee and a representative of MMS, internally and externally.

To further enhance and strengthen our resolve and in line with our current undertaking to transform MMS into a high performing organisation, MMS, as part of the MISC Group, is adopting the MISC Code of Conduct and Business Ethics and rebranded it as MMS Code of Conduct and Business Ethics (“the CoBE”).

The CoBE is a codified document that outlines the desired standards of behaviour that all MMS employees are expected to abide by. It contains an all-encompassing guidelines on conduct at the workplace which has been benchmarked to international standards. The CoBE also incorporates the latest relevant local and international law practices and contains detailed policy statements on the standards of behaviour and ethical conduct expected of each individual to whom the CoBE applies.

The CoBE extends its coverage to not only employees but also directors within the MMS Group and also to third parties which includes contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives performing work or services for or on behalf of MMS group of companies. These third parties are expected to comply with the relevant parts of the CoBE whilst performing such work or services.

In view of the CoBE’s international application, some provisions of the CoBE will be modified to adapt the CoBE to the requirements of local jurisdictions where MMS may operate. The CoBE will have separate Country Supplements to cater to local jurisdictions’ applicable legislation and social mores.

The CoBE is also accompanied by a CoBE Guide that sets out frequently asked questions and some “Dos” & “Don’ts” in relation to certain specific situations.

With each and every one of us taking the effort to understand and internalize the provisions and requirements of CoBE, it is our wish that this would bring MMS a step closer to become a high performing organization.

Best Regards,

Iwan Azlan Mokhtar
For MD/CEO

GENERAL BUSINESS PRINCIPLES

We at MMS are committed to making our company the centre of maritime services for the provision of marine assurance and compliance, port and terminal management, consultancy and services. We will base our progress upon the lessons and experiences that transformed MMS into a versatile business entity, meeting the challenges of the new millennium, and maintaining the unique characteristics.

While we will maintain flexibility to adapt to changing conditions, the nature of our business requires a focused, long-term approach and the need to balance risks and rewards. We will consistently strive to improve through learning, sharing and implementing best practices. We will be disciplined and selective in evaluating the range of our capital investment opportunities. We will strive to apply and extend technology through business-driven research and technical support and assume leadership in selective areas. We will implement appropriate measures to protect our personnel, physical assets, intellectual property and reputation.

In our globalization quest, we will seek opportunities in regions of the world where we can create value. We will work with existing and new partners who share our values, philosophy and business approach.

To this end, we aspire to achieve superior financial and operating results while adhering to the highest standards of business conduct. These objectives provide the foundation for our commitment to those with whom we interact. MMS recognizes five core areas of responsibility:

Shareholders

We are committed to creating and enhancing long-term shareholder value using the principles of value-based management.

Employees

The high caliber of our workforce is a valuable competitive advantage. To build on this human capital we will strive to hire and retain the most qualified people available, offer them good and competitive terms and conditions of service, and maximize their opportunities for success through training and development. We are committed to maintaining a safe work environment enriched by diversity and characterized by open communication, trust, fair treatment, and respect.

Customers

Success depends upon our ability to consistently satisfy changing customer preferences. We pledge to continuously provide products and services that conform to requirements of both our internal and external customers.

Business Partners

We will seek mutually beneficial relationships with our counterparts, contractors, suppliers, financial institutions, and other entities with whom we do business.

Communities

We pledge that MMS will be a responsible corporate citizen wherever it operates and will take into consideration the needs and aspiration of local communities.

Our measures of success are the extent to which we meet these commitments, the long-term value we create for our shareholders, the pride of our employees in their accomplishments, the satisfaction of our customers and all those with whom we do business, and the extent to which communities, both local and international, judge our activities as beneficial.

INTRODUCTION

This Code of Conduct and Business Ethics emphasizes and advances the principles of discipline, good conduct, professionalism, loyalty, integrity and cohesiveness that are critical to the success and well-being of the MMS group. This Code is part of the MMS group's overall corporate enhancement programme. It reflects the increasing need for effective corporate governance compliance measures in the conduct of the group's business domestically and worldwide.

Your compliance with and support for the letter and spirit of this Code is vital to MMS' continued success. Your failure to comply may have severe consequences for the group and may result in disciplinary action against you.

In the event of any doubts or questions concerning the application or interpretation of this Code, please seek advice from your Head of Department, Human Resource Management & Administration ("HRM") or Legal Services Department ("Legal"). You may also refer to the "MMS CoBE Guide," which provides illustrative guidance concerning the application of the Code in a variety of practical situations.

PART I

CORE VALUES AND CULTURE

1. Application

1.1.

This Code of Conduct and Business Ethics (the “Code” or “CoBE”) is intended to apply to every employee of every MMS group of companies worldwide. It is also intended to apply to every director (executive and non-executive) for those companies, except as otherwise stated in this Code. Joint venture companies in which MMS is a non-controlling co-venturer and associated companies are encouraged to adopt these or similar principles and standards.

1.2.

Although this Code is specifically written for MMS group employees and directors, MMS expects that contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives and others performing work or services for or on behalf of MMS group companies will comply with it in relevant part when performing such work or services. Failure by a contractor, sub-contractor, consultant, agent, representative or other service provider to comply with the principles and standards set out in this Code may result in the termination of the non-complying party’s relationship with MMS and other adverse consequences.

1.3.

Where this Code calls for a report to a MMS unit or official, contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives or other service providers may, in lieu of contacting such unit or official, instead contact HRM and Legal, the contact details for which are set out at the back of this Code. Where this Code calls for a report to a Head of Department to be made by a director of a MMS company, the report may be made to Legal.

1.4.

This Code is prepared in both English and Bahasa Malaysia, and may appear in other languages. In the event of a conflict, the English version will govern.

This Code will be implemented (with certain local adaptations) on a worldwide basis in a phased roll out, commencing with its entry into effect for Malaysian group companies. Any misconduct committed before the effective date of this Code for your company will be dealt with under the Code of Conduct and Discipline (or other applicable policies and terms and conditions of service) in effect for your company at the time of the misconduct.

1.6.

If a law conflicts with a rule or policy set out in this Code, you should comply with the law. If you perceive that a provision of this Code (as supplemented or modified for your jurisdiction by a Country Supplement, as described below) conflicts with the law in your jurisdiction, you should consult with your Head of Department, and Legal, rather than disregard the Code without consultation. However, if a local custom or policy conflicts with this Code, you are called upon to comply with this Code. If you have any questions about any of these conflicts, please consult your Head of Department and Legal.

1.7.

The provisions of this Code may be amended or waived by MMS from time-to-time in MMS’ sole discretion. MMS expects that waivers would only be granted in exceptional circumstances and then only in keeping with applicable law and MMS’ policies and procedures. The provisions of this Code may be supplemented or modified for your jurisdiction through local guidelines (a “Country Supplement”) that have been approved through Legal in consultation with MISC Legal, Corporate Secretarial and Compliance (LCSC). In particular, provisions concerning disciplinary procedures and actions for your jurisdiction may be set out in a Country Supplement for your jurisdiction. If no such provisions are set out in a Country Supplement for your jurisdiction, the standard disciplinary rules and practices for dealing with violations of company policy in your jurisdiction will apply, in every instance subject to the requirements of applicable law. In some jurisdictions, the Code may be implemented through a Staff Handbook or similar manual or document, which may address additional matters beyond the scope of the Code. Please contact your Head of Department, HRM or Legal for information about the Country Supplement in effect for your jurisdiction (if any). Any such Country Supplement will be considered part of this Code for your jurisdiction.

This Code does not identify or set out every law, policy or procedure that may apply to you in the performance of your role. You are responsible for informing yourself concerning laws and other MMS policies and procedures that apply to you as a result of your role with MMS. This Code does not constitute legal advice.

1.9.

To help you understand and interpret this Code, a user-friendly guide to the Code titled the “MMS CoBE Guide” will be made available. You may obtain a copy of that guide from your Head of Department, HRM or Legal. In the event of any conflict between that guide and this Code, this Code (as supplemented or modified for your jurisdiction) will govern.

2. Corporate Values and Culture

2.1.

MMS is committed to the highest standards of integrity, openness and accountability in the conduct of the group’s business and operations. MMS seeks to conduct its affairs in an ethical, responsible and transparent manner.

2.2.

As an employee in the MMS group, you have a duty to serve MMS with good faith, fidelity, diligence and integrity. You are required to act in the best interests of MMS and to refrain from engaging in conduct or activities which may adversely affect the best interests of MMS. You are at all times required to:

- conscientiously maintain the highest degree of integrity,
- always exercise proper care and judgment,
- avoid conflicts of interest, and
- refrain from taking advantage of your position or exercising your authority to further your own personal interest at the expense of MMS.

You may not conduct yourself in a manner that might undermine or that is likely to destroy or seriously damage MMS’ confidence and trust in you. These duties are without limitation on duties imposed on you by law.

2.3.

MMS expects that, throughout your time of service as a MMS employee, you will: -

- a) strive towards a high standard of professionalism;
- b) give your undivided loyalty and devotion to MMS at all times and on all occasions;
- c) serve with honesty and integrity, goodwill and courtesy;
- d) display group cohesiveness based on oneness of purpose together with a caring attitude for the individual;
- e) uphold the duty of care for the interests and reputation of MMS;
- f) display a high sense of discipline, cooperativeness and diligence in carrying out your duties;
- g) act consistently to maintain MMS’ confidence and trust in you;
- h) promote creativity and new approaches in the course of carrying out your work; and
- i) comply with applicable laws, regulations and MMS policies and procedures.

3. Definitions

3.1.

Where the context or construction requires, all words applied in plural will be deemed to include the singular, and vice versa; the masculine will include the feminine and neuter, and vice versa; and the present tense will include the past and the future tense, and vice versa.

3.2.

References to “you” in this Code refer to any person to whom this Code applies. Where more specific references are used (such as “employee”), the more specific reference is intended.

3.3.

For purposes of this Code, the term “family/household” includes your spouse(s), children (including step-children and adopted children), parents, step-parents, siblings, step-siblings, grandparents, grandchildren, in-laws, uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, and first cousins, as well as other persons who are members of your household.

3.4.

For purposes of this Code, the term “employee” means any person who is in the employment of MMS including but not limited to executives, non-executives, secretaries, secondees and individuals on direct hire.

The term “MMS” and “Company” means MISC Maritime Services Sdn. Bhd. (and its subsidiaries and controlled companies). The expression “MMS” is used for convenience where references are made to MMS companies in general. The companies in which MMS has direct or indirect shareholding are distinct legal entities.

PART II

Duties of Good Faith, Fidelity, Diligence and Integrity

Part II A: Conflict of Interest

1. Duty Regarding Avoidance of Conflict of Interest

1.1.

A conflict of interest arises in any situation in which an individual is in a position to take advantage of his or her role at MMS for his or her personal benefit, including the benefit of his or her family and friends. A conflict of interest can make it difficult for an individual to fulfill his or her duties impartially and correctly. A conflict of interest can exist even if it results in no unethical or improper acts. Even the appearance of improper influence in your decision-making may be an issue. A conflict of interest will undermine the values of good faith, fidelity, diligence and integrity in the performance of your duties and obligations as expected by MMS. You must therefore avoid conflicts of interest between your personal dealings and your duties and responsibilities in the conduct of MMS' business. In particular, the use of MMS office position, confidential information, assets and other MMS resources for personal gain, or for the advantage of others with whom you are associated, is prohibited.

1.2.

The situations under which conflicts of interest may arise include, but are not limited to:

- a) when you, in the exercise of your authority, give preference to your interests or the interests of your family/household members, associates or friends rather than to the interests of MMS;
- b) when you are in a position to influence decisions that are to be made by MMS with respect to dealings with a business, enterprise or entity owned or partially owned by you, your family/household members, associates or friends; and
- c) when you compete with or against MMS.

In certain instances, a conflict of interest that has been fully disclosed to MMS may be tolerated by MMS (for example, because measures are taken to ensure that it poses no risks to MMS). Any conflict situations should be cleared with Legal. A failure to disclose fully the nature and scope of the conflict of interest may result in disciplinary action against you.

2. Involvement in Business Where You or Your Family /Household Have a Direct or Indirect Interest

2.1.

You, the members of your family/household and your or their nominees and trustees, and any account or entity over which you or they have influence or control, must not promote the formation of any business, firm, corporation or company and/or own, either directly or indirectly, shares or other forms of beneficial interest (hereinafter referred to as "Equity") in: -

- a) privately held entities which derive any income or receive any payment from contractual or other business arrangements with MMS;
- b) privately held entities listed in MMS' lists of registered contractors, even if the entities concerned do not derive any income or receive any payment from contractual or other business arrangements with MMS; or
- c) publicly held entities in which you or a member of your family/household holds a greater than 1% ownership interest and with respect to which you have the authority to make decisions in the course of your work at MMS.

Should a situation arise (for example as a result of inheritance or marriage) whereby you (or a member of your family/household) become, directly or indirectly, the owner of Equity in any entities identified above, you will be considered to be in a potential conflict of interest situation and you will be under a duty, as soon as you become aware of the situation, to inform your Head of Department, HRM and Legal (or, in the case of directors, Legal) in writing of the circumstances. You must then consult with MMS concerning the most appropriate way of preventing or overcoming the conflict of interest. Following such consultation, MMS may give such instructions to you as it deems appropriate, which may include requiring you or other persons to dispose of the Equity in such entities.

Your failure to inform MMS when a conflict of interest (or potential conflict of interest situation as described above) becomes known to you and/or failure to comply with the requirements of MMS will be deemed to be a conflict of interest for which appropriate disciplinary action may be taken against you.

Conflicts of interest and potential conflicts of interest which have been fully disclosed and which are formally permitted by MMS will not constitute violations of this Code.

3. Illustrative Examples of Where Conflict of Interest Arises and You Are a Party to Decision-Making

3.1.

You will be in a conflict of interest situation when you, a member of your family/household and/or your associates has an interest (whether in the form of directorships, partnerships, shareholdings or through agencies) in entities which are on MMS' lists of registered contractors or which have contractual or supply arrangements with MMS, and you are involved in any decision-making by MMS relating to, or have dealings (whether directly or indirectly) with, such entities in the course of your duties with MMS.

3.2.

You will also be in a conflict of interest situation when you are involved or expect to be involved in the hiring, supervision, management or career planning in respect of any of your relatives at MMS.

3.3.

When such a conflict of interest situation becomes known to you, unless otherwise instructed by MMS, you will abstain from participating in any MMS decision-making or deliberations involving the entity or person and also avoid doing anything which could influence the decisions on such dealings, and will report such conflict of interest to HRM and Legal (or, in the case of directors, Legal) promptly. Following such report, MMS will give such instructions to you as it deems appropriate, which you must then heed.

3.4.

You may be asked to serve on the board of directors of another organization and this can, in some cases, raise a conflict of interest or a legal issue, even if the service is voluntary and unpaid. Before a MMS employee accepts a position as a board member outside of MMS, he or she should always obtain approval from his or her Human Resource Management and Legal.

4. Disclosures Giving Undue Advantage to Third Parties

You must not be involved with the commission or omission of any act which gives an undue advantage to an outside party in its dealings with MMS without prior approval from MMS, whether or not such act or omission results in you obtaining a personal gain, benefit or advantage in business transactions or dealings involving MMS. Such prior approvals should be obtained through your Head of Department, HRM and Legal (or, in the case of directors, the relevant full board of directors). Giving an outside party confidential MMS information without appropriate authorisation in order to assist that party in securing MMS business or for any other reason will be considered a violation of this restriction.

5. Personal Transactions with MMS' Clients, Suppliers, Contractors and Vendors

5.1.

You may not, directly or indirectly, enter into transactions or dealings for the purchase or sale of any moveable or immoveable property or for the supply or purchase of any service from any of MMS' clients, suppliers, contractors or vendors (or with their agents or representatives) with whom you have or are likely to have official dealings on behalf of MMS, other than transactions or dealings on such terms as are freely available to the general public.

5.2.

If you, despite efforts to avoid transactions or dealings as aforesaid, are constrained nevertheless to act contrary to this prohibition, you must seek through your Head of Department and Legal express written permission of MMS management for the conduct of such transactions or dealings, and must not proceed with them until such permission is obtained.

5.3.

The granting of the aforesaid permission will be subject to you satisfying MMS that such transactions or dealings are not inconsistent with the due and proper performance of your duties or the fulfillment of your obligation to MMS.

Part II B: Fighting Corruption and Unethical Practices

6. Solicitation, Bribery and Corruption

6.1.

An act of corruption by you has the effect of compromising the due and proper performance of your duties and the exercise of your authority, thereby undermining the integrity of the decision-making process and the decisions of MMS concerning its business and affairs.

6.2.

You are prohibited from, directly or indirectly, soliciting, accepting or obtaining or agreeing to accept or attempting to obtain, from any party for yourself or for any other party, any bribe or gratification as an inducement or a reward for doing or forbearing to do, or for having done or forborne to do, any act in relation to MMS' affairs or business, or for showing favour or forbearing to show disfavor to any party in relation to MMS' affairs or business.

6.3.

You may not directly or indirectly offer, promise or give any bribe as an inducement or a reward for doing or forbearing to do, or for having done or forborne to do, any act in relation to MMS' affairs or business, or for showing favour or forbearing to show disfavour to MMS in relation to MMS' affairs or business, whether in the form of a facilitation payment, kickback, donation, fee or any other form.

6.4.

You should satisfy yourself concerning the status and probity of any contractor, subcontractor, agent, consultant, representative or other person who you engage to act for or on behalf of MMS or in relation to MMS' affairs or business, and confirm that the relevant party understands and accepts MMS' policies prohibiting improper solicitation, bribery and corruption. Contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives and others must comply with such policies when performing work or services for or on behalf of companies in the MMS group.

6.5.

Even the appearance of conduct prohibited by this Section 6, or any other measure that is unethical or that will tarnish MMS' reputation for honesty and integrity, must be avoided. If you are unsure whether an action is permitted, seek guidance before acting.

6.6.

If you receive a request for a bribe or if you are offered a bribe, you must report it to your Head of Department.

6.7.

In this part, a "bribe" or a "gratification" is any gift, payment, benefit or other advantage, pecuniary or otherwise, offered, given, or received in order to secure an undue or improper result, award, decision, benefit or advantage of any kind. A bribe need not involve cash or another financial asset—it can be any kind of advantage, including the unpaid use of corporate services or property, loan guarantees or the provision of employment to the family or friends of people with whom MMS deals.

7. Receiving Facilitation Payments

7.1.

You are prohibited from, directly or indirectly, accepting or obtaining or attempting to accept or obtain facilitation payments from any person for yourself or for any other person subject to this Code.

7.2.

In this part, the term "facilitation payments" generally means payments made to secure or expedite the performance by a person performing a routine or administrative duty or function.

8. Prohibition on Commissions, Discounts and Secret Profits

You must not, directly or indirectly, receive or obtain, in respect of any goods or services sold or purchased or other business transacted (whether or not by you) by or on behalf of MMS, any discount, rebate, commission, service, interest, consideration of value or other benefit or payments of any kind (whether in cash or in kind) which is not authorised by MMS' rules, policies or guidelines.

9. Accounting for Secret Profits or Gains

A person subject to this Code who, directly or indirectly, obtains any discount, rebate, commission, service, interest, consideration of value or other benefit or payments of any kind (whether in cash or in kind and whether as a bribe or otherwise), by virtue of his/her position or authority with or on behalf of MMS, will immediately disclose such receipt and he/she will be liable to render an account of the same and surrender any benefits and/or payments received to MMS.

10. Receiving Gifts and Entertainment

10.1.

You are required to comply with the policies and procedures of MMS relating to the receipt of gifts and entertainment.

10.2.

In no event, however, may you or any of your family/household members accept gifts or entertainment in exchange for an exercise or non-exercise of your MMS authority or otherwise to the detriment of MMS.

11. Providing Gifts and Entertainment

11.1.

You are required to comply with the policies and procedures of MMS relating to the giving of gifts and entertainment.

11.2.

MMS prohibits the giving of entertainment or gifts using MMS resources that are illegal or unduly dangerous, or indecent, sexually oriented or inconsistent with MMS' commitment to mutual respect, or for the purpose of improperly influencing someone to take action in favour of MMS or to refrain from taking action adverse to MMS. No gift of cash may be given. You should not pay for entertainment or a gift personally in order to avoid having to seek pre-approval or to otherwise circumvent MMS policies.

12. Public Officials

12.1.

You are prohibited from offering gifts or entertainment other than in accordance with the policies and procedures of MMS relating to the giving of gifts and entertainment.

12.2.

You are prohibited from offering gifts and entertainment, including travel-related expenses, to government officials or their family/household members without permission from the MD/CEO.

12.3.

You are prohibited from paying for nonbusiness travel and hospitality for any government official or his/her family/household members without permission from the MD/CEO.

12.4.

You must comply with local laws concerning lobbying in any jurisdiction in which MMS engages in lobbying activity. Prior to engaging in lobbying activities, you should obtain guidance from your Head of Department and Legal.

12.5.

You may not offer or provide gifts or anything else of value to any person, such as an agent, consultant or contractor, if you know or suspect that a government official or his/her family member will be the indirect beneficiary or recipient, other than as approved by the MD/CEO.

12.6.

Any agent, contractor, or other representative dealing with government officials on MMS' behalf must be evaluated and must be informed of the provisions of this Code relating to restrictions on bribery and gifts to public officials.

12.7.

You may not take action to circumvent the prohibitions in this Section 12. You must in every instance comply with the rules concerning solicitation, bribery and corruption set out in other sections of this Part II, as well as with applicable laws concerning bribery and corruption.

12.8.

For purposes of this Code, the term "government official" includes, without limitation, candidates for public office, officials of any political party, and officials of state-owned enterprises other than MMS.

13. Money Laundering and Counterparty Due Diligence

13.1.

You must conduct appropriate counterparty due diligence to understand the business and background of MMS' prospective business counterparties and to determine the origin and destination of money, property, and services. You must report to your Head of Department and Legal suspicious transactions or suspected incidents of money laundering or bribery. You should not try to investigate a case of money laundering or bribery yourself. Your Head of Department, in consultation with Legal, generally will be responsible for decisions in this regard.

13.2.

In this part, "money laundering" is generally defined as occurring when the criminal origin or nature of money or assets is hidden in legitimate business dealings or when legitimate funds are used to support criminal activities, including the financing of terrorism. Offences covered by anti-money laundering legislation include prejudicing or obstructing an investigation and failing to report suspicious activity.

13.3.

You may not knowingly deal with criminals or the proceeds of a crime.

13.4.

The amount, nature, purpose, and provider or recipient of any payment or transfer to or from MMS group companies must be accurately reflected in the books and records of the group.

13.5.

You may not establish bank, securities trading or similar accounts in the name of MMS or for the benefit of MMS without proper authorisation from the Finance Department.

Part II C: National and International Trade

14. Antitrust /Competition Law

14.1.

You must ensure that your actions towards business partners (e.g., customers and suppliers), competitors and governmental authorities at all times reflect fair and proper business practices and are in compliance with the laws and regulations governing free and fair competition and monopolies. In this regard, you must fully comply with the competition laws of every country in which MMS operates. In furtherance of this requirement, you are obligated to comply with the MISC Competition Guidelines as in effect for your jurisdiction from time-to time, a copy of which is available from Legal.

14.2.

It is MMS' policy that an employee participating in the violation of competition rules will be punished for any misconduct. Any behavior even suggestive of illegal anticompetitive activity is against MMS' policy and any employee engaging in such conduct should expect to face disciplinary action by MMS. In case of doubt concerning the compliance of your activities with competition rules, you must contact Legal.

15. Export and Import Controls, International Boycotts and Economic Sanctions Programmers

15.1.

MMS needs to be able to consider the potential impact of export control laws and economic sanctions programmes before transferring goods, technology, software or services across national borders by whatever means. In this regard, if you are involved with imports or exports, you must have proper authorisation from your Head of Department before exporting or importing goods, technology, software, or services across national borders for or on behalf of MMS.

15.2.

You must not bring restricted goods into a country without declaring them and you must not import prohibited goods. You must meet import requirements when bringing goods or services into a country, ensuring duties, levies and taxes are paid and proper documentation is presented.

15.3.

You must not participate in or agree to boycotts of customers, suppliers or jurisdictions without proper authorization from your Head of Department. You should report any request to participate in an international boycott to your Head of Department, as some countries may require that such requests be reported by MMS.

15.4.

If you are involved in international business for or on behalf of MMS, you must inform yourself concerning the countries, organisations and persons sanctioned under laws applicable to you or your MMS group employer. The sanctions area is complex, so you should consult with your Head of Department and Legal concerning any questions or uncertainties.

15.5.

You must comply with MMS policies and procedures in effect from time-to-time regarding export and import controls, boycotts and economic sanctions programmes.

Part II D: Assets of MMS

16. Responsibility for Assets, Facilities, Resources and Records

16.1.

Insofar as you have possession of or are given access to assets, facilities, resources or records belonging to MMS, that possession or access is provided on the basis of trust and confidence that they are to be used for the furtherance of the interest of the businesses of MMS. These assets may be tangible—for example, equipment, including computer hardware, or cash—or they may be intangible, such as intellectual property and computer software.

16.2.

You are responsible for the safekeeping of all assets, facilities, resources and records belonging to MMS that are provided to you for the performance of your duties. You must diligently give heed to and strictly comply with the MMS policies and procedures as amended and updated from time-to-time on the use of all assets, facilities, resources and records.

16.3.

You must further take all necessary steps to prevent theft, loss, damage to, or misuse of assets, facilities, resources and records belonging to MMS, the occurrence of which should be reported immediately to MMS. Regardless of condition or value, assets, facilities, resources and records belonging to MMS may not be misused, taken, sold, lent, given away or otherwise disposed of, or used for personal purposes, except with the appropriate specific authorisation of MMS.

16.4.

Subject to applicable laws, you may be liable for any loss of or damage to assets, facilities, resources and records arising from your willful misconduct or negligence or careless action or as a result of action taken without MMS' approval, and any financial loss suffered by MMS may be recovered from you by way of deduction from your salary or other means. Within the limits of applicable law, MMS may at its discretion take any other action against you considered appropriate by MMS, including reporting you to the public authorities.

16.5.

You must also comply with all policies and procedures established from time-to-time concerning the preparation, maintenance and disposal of MMS' books and records.

Part II E: Financial Integrity

17. Internal Controls and Procedures

17.1.

You must comply with all policies and procedures established from time-to-time to safeguard and support the integrity and accuracy of MMS' books and records and financial reporting. In this regard, you must not, for example: -

- a) conceal, alter, destroy or otherwise modify MMS records or documents other than in accordance with established, ordinary course procedures (and in no case impede or frustrate an investigation or audit or conceal or misstate information);
- b) intentionally make a false or misleading entry in a record, report, file or claim (including travel and entertainment expense reports);
- c) establish accounts, companies or arrangements to circumvent or frustrate MMS' controls, policies or procedures;
- d) fail to cooperate fully and truthfully with internal and external audits authorized by MMS; or
- e) engage in any scheme to defraud anyone of money, property or honest services.

17.2.

You must also comply with all policies and procedures established from time-to-time concerning the preparation, maintenance and disposal of MMS financial books and records.

Part II F: Confidentiality Obligations/ Intellectual Property/Public Communications

18. Confidentiality Obligations

18.1.

The business affairs and records of MMS comprising business, technical, financial, legal, personnel and contractual records and documents comprising telegrams, e-mails, letters, maps, reports, drawings, calculations, specifications, formulae, forms, licenses, agreements or other documents or computer softwares or files of whatever nature and informations as to formulae, processes and manufacturing methods are all confidential information belonging to MMS. Such confidential information is strictly private and confidential and may not be utilised, discussed with, divulged to or disclosed to persons inside or outside MMS, except by persons authorised to do so. All necessary precautions are to be taken by you with respect to the confidentiality of such confidential information.

18.2.

You may not, either during or after your employment or engagement, disclose, divulge or utilise without appropriate authorisation any such confidential information which may have come to your knowledge during your employment or engagement under any previous contract of service with MMS and you must, both during and after your employment or engagement, take all reasonable precautions to keep all such confidential information secret.

18.3.

Except so far as may be necessary for the purpose of performing your duties you may not, without the consent of MMS, retain or make originals or copies of such confidential information or notices thereof, nor retain samples of specimens in which MMS may be or may have been interested and which have come into your possession by reason of your employment or engagement. If on termination of your employment or engagement you are in possession of any confidential information or any such samples or specimens as aforesaid, you will deliver forthwith the same on or before the date of cessation of your employment/engagement to MMS without being asked, except insofar as consent to retain them has been given to you by MMS.

18.4.

In the course of your relationship with MMS, you may have established contacts and relationships with MMS' vendors, suppliers, contractors, principals and other business partners. You will not at any time during your relationship with MMS, or for a period of two years after the cessation of your relationship with MMS (or for whatever other period of time as may be specified in the terms of your engagement or Country Supplement to this Code applicable to you), whether by resignation or otherwise, make use of business opportunities arising from your relationship with MMS or cause or attempt to cause the diversion of such business opportunity from being exploited by MMS or cause or attempt to cause the termination of contracts, agencies or other business relationships of MMS without first obtaining the prior consent of MMS.

18.5.

You will not at any time, after the cessation of your tenure with MMS, whether by resignation or otherwise, use MMS' confidential information in breach of your post-tenure obligations to maintain the confidence of such confidential information.

18.6.

While MMS may hire persons who have knowledge and experience in various technical areas, you must not on behalf or for the benefit of MMS employ people as a means of gaining access to the trade secrets and other sensitive proprietary information of others.

19. Data Protection

19.1.

You must comply with MMS policies and applicable laws concerning the protection of personal privacy, including the protection of personal data.

20. Insider Dealing

20.1.

You must protect the confidential business information of MMS and its counterparties, and never use it for your own benefit or the benefit of other persons—especially not to trade in shares or other securities or to recommend or cause a third-party to do so.

20.2.

You are required to abide by all applicable laws on insider dealing, which generally is when you trade in shares or other securities while in possession of material non-public information or when you share such information with someone else who then trades in those shares or other securities. In particular, you must not deal in the securities of MMS group companies (or in other speculative dealings with regard to those securities) while in the possession of material non-public information. We expect all directors, employees, their respective families/households and others whose relationships with MMS give them access to such information to comply with these principles, along with other laws, regulations and policies concerning the handling of confidential information. "Material non-public information" is generally non-public information that a reasonable investor would consider important when deciding to buy or sell securities. The restrictions described here also apply to "price sensitive information" or other similar types of information in jurisdictions where the applicable insider trading laws make reference to those types of information.

20.3.

You are also required to abide by all applicable laws on securities market abuse, which involves spreading false information or engaging in activities designed to manipulate the market for publicly traded securities.

21. Inventions and Computer Programmes

21.1.

MMS encourages you to be inventive and innovative. Such inventiveness and innovation are part of the normal duties owed by you to MMS.

21.2.

Subject to the requirements of applicable law, the ownership of inventions, computer programmes or results of technological research made by you or to which you have contributed whilst working for MMS or in the course of discharging your duties or employing MMS resources, data and/or time, will be vested with MMS. Nevertheless, subject to the requirements of applicable law, MMS may reward you as it may deem appropriate, in its discretion.

21.3.

Further to Section 21.2 above, you may not file for any trademarks, patents or registered designs or claim copyright in your own name for or in such inventions, computer programmes or results of technological research.

21.4.

You may not, without the written consent of MMS, disclose such inventions, computer programmes or results of technological research or any information relating thereto to any person whomsoever except to MMS and its duly authorised agents.

21.5.

Without prejudice to its rights under this Section, MMS is prepared, in special cases, to consider requests from you for permission to publish original papers, in an appropriate form, whenever in the opinion of MMS the subject matter thereof is considered to be of benefit to the community and its disclosure will not be disadvantageous to MMS.

21.6.

In this Section, the term "invention" includes any new or improved substance, material, plant machinery or apparatus produced or capable of being produced by manufacture, any new or improved method or process of manufacturing or of testing or of sampling, and any discovery in a field of science or applied technology.

21.7.

Further, the term "computer programme" includes any computer programmes, softwares, scripts, or other computer instructions that relate to any business and processes of MMS.

22. Third Party Intellectual Property

22.1.

You must comply with all laws, regulations and contractual obligations regarding the valid intellectual property rights of other parties, including patents, copyrights, trade secrets and other proprietary information. You may not knowingly infringe on the protected intellectual property rights of other parties.

23. Publication of Materials

23.1.

Except with the written permission of MMS, you will not publish or write any books or other works which are based on MMS' confidential information as described in Section 18.1.

23.2.

If permission is granted, it will be subject to the following conditions:

- a) the proposed publication will not be published in such a way as to state or imply that it has received official support or backing or sponsorship from MMS; and

- b) the proposed publication will not, under any circumstances, bear the words “MMS approved publication” or words to that effect, however phrased, that could be construed to suggest that the publication has been agreed to or approved by MMS.

23.3.

Certain categories of employees (e.g., certain engineers and technologists) in the MMS specialist programme (if such programme is available) are not subject to the conditions described in Section 23.2, but permission for the publication of books, articles, journals, presentation material or other works based on MMS’ confidential information is still required to be obtained from MMS through their relevant Head of Department. Questions in this regard may be directed to your Head of Department and MISC Corporate Communications.

24. Making of Public Statements

24.1.

Irrespective of whether in your personal or official capacity, you will not either orally or in writing or in any form (including on social media websites) make or circulate any public statement on the policies or decisions of MMS or discuss publicly any measure taken by MMS or any official matter taken or carried out by you, unless you are duly appointed or authorized to make such statement on behalf of MMS.

24.2.

You will not, either orally or in writing or in any other form (unless you are appointed or authorised as aforesaid), make any public statement or comment on any matter relating to the work of the department or organisation in which you are or were employed, or relating to any organization with which MMS has dealings: -

- a) where such statement or comment may reasonably be regarded as indicative of the policy of MMS; or
- b) where such statement or comment may embarrass or is likely to embarrass MMS; or
- c) where such statement or comment may compromise the interests and reputation of MMS.

24.3.

In this Section, “public statement” or “discuss publicly” includes the making of any statement or comment to the press, magazines, periodicals or the public or in the course of any lecture or speech or the broadcasting thereof by sound, vision or electronic means. It also applies to every kind of correspondence including mail, electronic documents, instant messages, websites, social media tools, blogs, paper documents, facsimile, voice and voicemail recordings.

25. Giving of Reference

Save insofar as required in the course of normal business, you may only give reference in a non-MMS capacity, and no use will be made of MMS’ name or stationery with MMS’ logo or any corporate identifier. Where a reference is provided on a non-MMS basis, you are duty bound to inform the party who seeks your reference that your reference is given strictly in that non-MMS capacity.

26. Social Media/Information Technology and Systems

26.1.

You must not upload, download, send or otherwise access or store pornography or other indecent or offensive material using MMS premises, equipment or systems. Sending or forwarding obscene, libelous, defamatory, offensive or racist remarks is strictly prohibited. If you receive materials of this nature, you must promptly notify MMS management.

26.2.

You must not upload, download, send or otherwise access material that is likely to cause annoyance, inconvenience, or offense to your colleagues, including inappropriate jokes.

26.3.

The MMS IT and communications systems are to be used for MMS work and business purposes only.

26.4.

You must not send personal e-mails using MMS e-stationery or displaying MMS headers or footers, or otherwise suggesting that such communications are authorised by MMS.

26.5.

You must not use personal e-mail addresses and services to send or receive MMS confidential information. Similarly, you must not allow automatic forwarding of electronic mail to external mail addresses.

26.6.

You must not disable or circumvent MMS IT security measures.

26.7.

When using MMS IT and communications systems, conducting MMS' business or acting for MMS' benefit, you must not deliberately conceal or misrepresent your identity. You should not send e-mail messages using another person's e-mail account unless you have proper authorisation from the owner of the e-mail account.

26.8.

You may not forge or attempt to forge e-mail messages.

26.9.

You should not send or forward unsolicited e-mail messages.

26.10.

You must avoid sending confidential information via electronic messaging (e.g., SMS) or other unsecure messaging channels, and, if this is unavoidable, the information must be secured (e.g., with encryption, password).

26.11.

The installation of third party software in or connection of hardware to MMS IT systems or equipment without the prior approval of your Head of Department is prohibited.

26.12.

You must not employ MMS IT and communications systems to:

- a) conduct fraud;
- b) run your own business;
- c) view, download, copy, illegally share, process or post information in a way that infringes the relevant content provider's intellectual property rights;
- d) send chain letters, make solicitations for money or gifts, or make personal offers to sell products, for charitable fundraising campaigns, political advocacy efforts, religious efforts, or private non-MMS commercial purposes;
- e) commit "cybercrimes," such as spam attacks, hacking, IT sabotage, spying, and creating or sending viruses;
- f) send malicious rumours or transmit derogatory or indecent materials; or
- g) otherwise engage in activities that could damage MMS' business or reputation.

26.13.

If you discover or suspect any actual or potential incident that could compromise the security, integrity, confidentiality, operation or availability of MMS hardware, systems or data, or any disclosure of confidential information, you must immediately contact the ICT Service Desk or other relevant authority. System users are not allowed to attempt to prove a security weakness by engaging in unauthorised activity.

26.14.

You must use MMS IT and communications systems in a responsible and professional manner consistent with this Code and other MMS IT policies and procedures in effect from time-to-time, including the MMS Information Security Policy, which sets out more detailed and comprehensive guidelines for the preservation of information security and the use of the systems, and any relevant social media policies.

26.15.

MMS may search and monitor your e-mails and Internet usage conducted through MMS IT or communications systems and equipment, subject to the requirements of local laws and regulations. You should not assume that any use of MMS' communications devices or systems is private.

26.16.

You must safeguard passwords and other means of shielding MMS' information systems from unauthorised access, including by following the password protection protocols established by MMS from time-to-time.

26.17.

You must comply with MMS policies and procedures regarding records retention, whether with regard to electronic or hard copy records, in effect from time-to-time.

26.18.

Contractors and other parties authorised by MMS to use MMS computer systems must comply with MMS' IT policies and ICT security baseline procedures in effect from time-to-time.

Part II G: Conduct Contrary to Duty to Serve Diligently

27. Outside Employment or Business Activities

27.1.

As a MMS employee, you must devote your time and attention to the fulfillment of your employment obligations to MMS. MMS employees may not take up other employment or gainful activity, whether part-time or full-time, or be involved in any outside business activities, in whatever capacity (including being involved in the management, direction or conduct of another enterprise) without the express written permission of MMS. If you are already engaged in any other gainful activity or involved, either directly or indirectly, in the management or business activities of any other company or companies, firms, corporations or other business activities, you should come forward and disclose your activity to MMS through your Head of Department, HRM and Legal.

27.2.

The granting of permission will be subject to your satisfying MMS that such activity will not interfere with or compromise the proper performance of your duties or the fulfillment of your obligations to MMS.

27.3.

Any permission granted may be withdrawn at any time at the sole discretion of MMS without the need for assigning any reason thereof. In such an event, MMS will be deemed fully indemnified by you and will not be held liable for any repercussion arising from such decision to withdraw the permission so granted before.

28. Public Service, Recreational, Sports, Union and Community Activities

28.1.

Generally, MMS wishes to encourage you to participate in unpaid voluntary public service, recreational activities, sports and other community activities outside working hours. Whilst such activities outside working hours are encouraged, such activities must not be permitted to interfere with your duties and responsibilities during normal working hours.

28.2.

The general rule is that if a MMS employee is invited to serve on local bodies, or as an appointed or elected club official, the employee is required to notify his or her Head of Department, HRM and Legal immediately upon being so appointed or elected and must be able to balance the outside activities with his or her full-time MMS employment. The employee must be able to discharge his or her dual responsibilities satisfactorily, both in respect of the time taken up by the outside activity and the nature of his or her full-time duties. At all relevant times, the employee must ensure that his or her duties and obligations to MMS, as well as the interests of MMS, are not compromised.

28.3.

MMS recognises the role of employees who are elected officials of a labour union which has been duly accorded recognition by MMS and their participation in union activities which are in compliance with the relevant labour legislation.

28.4.

Charitable donations of (or employing) MMS resources must be preapproved by MD/CEO and may not be used to circumvent or avoid any of the provisions of this Code (particularly the prohibitions on bribery).

29. Political Activities

29.1.

MMS recognises that employees, in their capacity as citizens, may wish to involve themselves in legitimate political activities. While MMS does not wish to discourage employees from doing so, in order that MMS can avoid involvement or identification with any political party, employees are required to use their off duty time, or annual leave entitlement, subject to prior approval, for such matters. In the event an employee is appointed an office holder at the Branch, Division, State or National level of a political party, the employee is to inform MMS of such appointment.

29.2.

In order not to compromise the interests of MMS, employees who wish to stand for State, Federal and/or material elections are required to resign from MMS, subject to the requirements of applicable law.

29.3.

You must not use your position with MMS to try to influence any other person (whether or not employed by MMS) to make political contributions or to support politicians or their parties in any country without approval from MD/CEO.

29.4.

You may not make any contribution or incur any expenditure using MMS resources to benefit any political campaign, party or politician in any country without approval from MD/CEO.

29.5.

MMS facilities, equipment and resources may not be used for any political campaigns or party functions without approval from MD/CEO.

29.6.

Charitable donations may not be used as a substitute for prohibited political payments.

30. Prohibition of Action as Editor of Newspapers or Any Form of Publication

An employee will not act as the editor, or take part directly or indirectly in the management of any publication, including newspapers, magazines or journals, except for the following: -

- a) department or staff publications;
- b) professional publications; and
- c) publications of non-political or voluntary organisations.

31. Participation in the Media

31.1.

An employee may not participate in any form of advertisement or broadcasting whether in the newspapers, magazines, radio or television or any other media, without prior written consent from MMS.

31.2.

An employee may be allowed to contribute literary or academic articles to any publications (for example newspapers, magazines or journals), provided that prior written permission from MMS is obtained.

Part II H: Disclosure Duties

32. Your Duty to Report Breaches and Violations

32.1.

If you find or suspect that another person subject to this Code may have committed or may be about to commit any breach of any of his/her terms and conditions of service, of his/her engagement, or of this Code, or to violate other MMS policies or procedures or applicable law, whether deliberately or through inadvertence, you must forthwith report the same, in writing, to your Head of Department, HRM and Legal.

32.2.

You may also disclose any alleged or suspected improper conduct using the procedures provided for in the MMS Whistleblowing Policy as adopted for your jurisdiction, a copy of which is available from Legal.

32.3.

If you make a report or disclosure as stated above in good faith, belief, without malicious intent, that a breach or violation as aforesaid may have occurred or may be about to occur, you will not be penalised or subject to any form of victimisation or retaliatory action notwithstanding that, after investigation, it is shown that you were mistaken. Any form of reprisal by a person subject to this Code against another person who in good faith and without malicious intent has made a report or disclosure as stated above is forbidden and will itself be regarded as serious misconduct rendering the person engaged in the reprisal liable for disciplinary action. This includes blatant actions, such as firing, transferring, demoting or publicly attacking someone, and more subtle retaliation, such as avoiding someone, leaving him or her out of professional or social activities, and so on.

32.4.

The provisions of this Section 32 are not intended to invalidate grievance procedures and/or disciplinary action processes and procedures at your group company, and are subject to the procedures and restrictions in force for your jurisdiction.

33. Disclosure of Overpayments

If you find that you have received overpayments of salary, allowances, expenses, claims or other compensation, or benefits in excess of your entitlements, you must immediately inform your immediate superior and the department responsible for such payments or benefits and then forthwith refund any such overpayments to MMS.

PART III

Workplace Culture and Environment

1. Significance of Safe, Secure and Conducive Workplace Environment

MMS is committed to providing, in collaboration with you, a safe, secure and conducive workplace culture and environment, where the values of mutual and reciprocal respect, trust and confidence are upheld and actively promoted.

2. Unlawful Discrimination

2.1.

MMS will not tolerate unlawful discrimination in the workplace or on the job.

2.2.

You must comply with laws in your local jurisdiction that prohibit workplace discrimination.

3. Sustainable Development

3.1.

MMS is committed to sustainable development in order to help meet the world's growing energy needs through economical, environmental and socially responsible efforts.

3.2.

You should aim to create lasting social benefits; safeguard the health and safety of employees, contractors and neighbours; minimise disruptions to the community; lower emissions; minimise impact on ecosystems and biodiversity; and use energy, water and other resources more efficiently.

4. Dress Code

All employees should be neatly, appropriately and decently attired during office working hours. All employees should comply with more specific rules concerning attire that may be set out in any Country Supplement to this Code applicable to them or otherwise established by MMS for the workplace.

5. Sexual Harassment

5.1.

The promotion of the physical, emotional and psychological well-being of employees is an important objective of MMS. In this regard, MMS is committed to providing a conducive working environment where your right to protection from all forms of sexual harassment and unsolicited or unwarranted sexual overtures and advances is accorded due recognition.

5.2.

The act of sexual harassment, unsolicited and unwarranted sexual overtures and advances will be treated as misconduct.

5.3.

For the purpose of this Section, "sexual harassment" means:-

Any unwelcomed conduct of a sexual nature in the form of verbal, non-verbal, visual, psychological or physical harassment:-

- a) that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by the recipient as placing a condition of a sexual nature on his/her employment; or
- b) that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by the recipient as an offence or humiliation, or a threat to his/her wellbeing.

Sexual harassment in workplace includes any employment related sexual harassment occurring outside the workplace as a result of employment responsibilities or employment relationships. Situations under which such employment related sexual harassment may take place include, but are not limited to:-

- at work related social functions;
- in the course of work assignments outside the workplace;
- at work related conferences or training sessions;
- during work related travel;
- over the phone; and
- through electronic media.

6. Non-Business Workplace Relationships

6.1.

When employees have relationships which go beyond professional relationships and social friendships, such relationships may create conflicts of interest as well as opportunities for exploitation, favouritism or bias. Such relationships can also undermine core values, such as respect and trust amongst staff, and impact upon the reputation and integrity of MMS. These relationships create a real likelihood of disaffection, disharmony and significant difficulties for the parties concerned as well as for other co-employees of MMS. Under the circumstances, such relationships are discouraged. Your terms of employment may impose additional requirements with respect to workplace relationships.

6.2.

There is a basic conflict of interest when you manage someone with whom you have a family, romantic or intimate relationship. Even if you act properly, your relationship may be seen as influencing your judgment. Accordingly, as a MMS employee or director, you may not supervise, directly or indirectly, any employee with whom you have such a relationship without written permission from HRM (or, in the case of directors, Legal).

7. Occupational Health, Safety and Environment

7.1.

MMS is committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace for all employees working at its facilities and minimising the impact of its operations on the environment.

7.2.

Every MMS group employee must conscientiously and diligently comply with all HSE requirements, measures, work rules and standard operating procedures set out in manuals, handbooks and documents issued by MMS as amended and updated from time-to-time and all applicable laws and regulations.

8. Substance Misuse (Drug and Alcohol Abuse)

8.1.

The use of a substance of misuse (as defined in item 8.3) can impair performance at work and can be a threat to health, safety and the environment. Hence, it is MMS' policy that the unauthorised consumption, possession, distribution, purchase or sale of any substance of misuse within its premises or while conducting its businesses or being under the influence of any such substance while working is prohibited. In this respect, all persons covered by this Code must diligently heed and comply with the policies and procedures on substance misuse issued by MMS as amended and updated from time-to-time, copies of which are available from MISC GHSSE Division. The consumption of legally prescribed psychoactive drugs is permitted for the treatment of identified illnesses, subject to prior approval by MMS management with authority over the relevant premises or activity.

To ensure adherence to this policy, MMS may conduct unannounced testing and searches for substances of misuse in accordance with its policies and subject to the requirements of applicable laws. Any persons covered by this Code who are found to have unauthorised possession of any substance of misuse or who test positive for any substance of misuse are considered to have committed an act of misconduct which may render them liable for disciplinary action, including termination. Subject to local laws in the jurisdiction of operation, employees are required to consent to testing and searches conducted by any persons or laboratory authorised by MMS by signing relevant documents issued by MMS. Further, employees who undergo such testing must give consent to the release of the results to MMS.

8.3.

Under this Code, "substance of misuse" includes any illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages containing ethanol, legal psychoactive drugs obtained or used without legal prescription, and legally prescribed psychoactive drugs consumed beyond their therapeutic or prescribed uses.

8.4.

MMS contractors and subcontractors are required to demonstrate that substance misuse control programmes are part of their HSE management to ensure that substance misuse among their employees is adequately controlled and meets MMS standards.

9. Borrowing Money

9.1.

You will not, under any circumstances, borrow money from your subordinate or from MMS contractors, subcontractors, consultants or suppliers. You may, however, stand surety for your subordinates or other persons subject to this Code for loans taken from MMS based on MMS' prevailing policy.

9.2.

Subject to the foregoing and to any restrictions set out in a Country Supplement that are applicable to you, you may borrow money from any person or stand as surety or guarantor for any borrower provided that you do not in any manner place yourself under any serious obligation to any person:

- a) who is, directly or indirectly, subject to your official authority; or
- b) with whom you have or are likely to have official dealings.

PART IV

Discipline, Disciplinary Process and Sanctions

1. Importance of Good Conduct and Discipline

1.1.

The maintenance of discipline, good conduct and decorum amongst the employees of MMS is critical to the smooth running of its business or enterprise and is for the common good of MMS and its employees.

1.2.

The term “misconduct” means improper behaviour or an act or conduct in relation to duties or work which is inconsistent with the due performance of obligations to MMS and includes a breach of discipline or violation of this Code or the rules and regulations as set out in any handbooks, policies or procedure statements or in any documentation of MMS.

1.3.

The following acts may be treated as misconduct for which a person covered by this Code may be liable for disciplinary action, subject to the requirements of applicable law: -

- i. insubordination;
- ii. tardiness;
- iii. absenteeism;
- iv. violent behaviour or threats of violent behaviour (includes assaults and fighting, whether with employees, clients, contractors, or visitors to MMS' premises);
- v. theft, fraud, misappropriation;
- vi. being dishonest or conducting oneself in such a manner as to lay oneself open to suspicion of dishonesty;
- vii. encouraging or assisting anyone to steal MMS' property;
- viii. negligence, neglect or dereliction of duty;
- ix. sleeping while on duty;
- x. deliberate damage to MMS' property;
- xi. leaving the workplace during working hours without appropriate permission;

- xii. sexual impropriety at the workplace;
- xiii. drug or alcohol abuse on the job or that affects your performance;
- xiv. signing in or signing out attendance for other employees;
- xv. sexual harassment;
- xvi. obstructing other employees from performing their duties;
- xvii. gambling within the premise of MMS;
- xviii. non-observance of safety precautions or rules, or interfering or tampering with any safety devices installed in or about the premises of MMS;
- xix. engaging in any illegal or unethical practices such as taking or giving bribes or receiving any illegal gratification whether in monetary terms or otherwise;
- xx. engaging in other employment/business whilst in the service of MMS, without the permission of MMS;
- xxi. any act which could adversely affect the image or reputation of MMS;
- xxii. misuse of MMS' computer and telecommunications systems (e.g., excessive accessing of non-work related internet sites (such as social networking websites), accessing of pornographic sites and deliberate tampering with or unauthorised use of computer hardware or software);
- xxiii. violating local laws concerning the protection of the privacy of personal data of MMS employees;
- xxiv. taking retaliatory actions against persons in situations where they are protected by the MMS Whistleblowing Policy;
- xxv. conducting themselves in a manner that can be reasonably construed as lacking in efficiency;
- xxvi. breaching any policies or prohibitions set out within this Code; and
- xxvii. taking measures in circumvention of the policies and prohibitions set out in this Code.

1.4.

The above list of types of misconduct is not to be taken as exhaustive and, for the avoidance of doubt, the said list does not detract from the meaning of misconduct as set out in Section 1.2 of Part IV above.

1.5.

Without limitation upon the foregoing, a person covered by this Code will strictly:-

- a) observe all statutory laws and regulations applicable to MMS' business and operations; and
- b) comply with MMS' established rules and procedures, including but not limited to limits of authority (LOAs).

1.6.

Subject to the requirements of applicable law, disciplinary action may be taken against any person covered by this Code for misconduct or for non-compliance with such laws, regulations, rules and procedures.

2. Disciplinary Process and Sanctions

Provisions concerning disciplinary procedures and actions relevant for your jurisdiction are set out in a Country Supplement. If no such provisions are set out in such a supplement for your jurisdiction, the standard disciplinary rules and practices for dealing with violations of company policy in your jurisdiction will apply, in every instance subject to the requirements of applicable law.
